MORE WARRANTS OUT FOR YOUNG IN MARION WAR

Italian Claims Raid- ers Drank Wine and Ate His Cheese

MARION, Ill., Jan. 10.—(A.P.)—Withdrawal of three companies of National Guard who were rushed to Williamson county following a controversy over law enforcement will not be asked until tomorrow at least according to Sheriff George Gilligan.

The sheriff's statement was made early tonight, shortly after he had issued an ultimatum to alleged bootleggers, whose activities are said to have resulted in the present situation, to give up their illicit traffic, and engage in some legitimate business.

Both sides to the controversy today remained adamant, Sheriff Gilligan asserting that he would approve removal of the troops only after citizens would assure him "co-operation" while followers of S. Glenn Young, dry worker, declared that "co-operation for law enforcement would be forthcoming any time the sheriff wanted it."

Despite the order of Division Chief W. W. Anderson of the general prohibition agents, that all raids in the county should cease and that thereafter all raids should be conducted by federal agents only, Young in a statement stated that "with or without federal aid, we're going to continue the raids, and I'm going to lead them."

War Between Factions.

The situation today developed into a war between the opposing forces. Sheriff Gilligan declaring that "Young and his gunmen must go," while Ku Klux Klan leaders who have played a prominent part in the situation, asserted that "Young is going to stay."

"We'll use who we please to drive lawlessness out of the county," said Arlie O. Boswell, reform candidate for state's attorney, and supporter of Young. He said there has been no change in Young's connection with the raids, and denied that Young had been called off by federal prohibition headquarters.

Affidavits concerning one hundred alleged attacks upon Italian residents of the county, chiefly at Herrin were obtained by John Picco, Italian consul at Springfield, who asserted that if his investigation yielded competent proof legal action will be taken against the Ku Klux Klan raiders.

Baker Has Troubles.

Alex Ruggier, Herrin baker, the last man interviewed by the Italian consul, said the raiders entered his home at 3:30 A. M. last Sunday, tore the bed clothes off him and ordered him to the cellar. He alleged that they took all his wine, permitted under a federal ruling, and said that ten of the raiders sat down, drank a bottle of wine each and ate a great part of his cheese. When they left, he asserted he discovered that $77 was missing. Ruggier told the consul that he had observed all the regulations used in the federal permit!

"People don't realize," said Sheriff Gilligan in commenting on the Italian's story, "the extent of the violence the raiders have shown these foreigners. I believe they are entitled to live here unmolested. They have been driven to desperation, and it was Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, insurgent Republican leader submitted a proposal to fix railroad rates on the basis of cost of service.

The senate foreign relations committee made plans to hold public hearings on Senator Borah's Russian recognition resolutions.

Still another proposal for disposition of Muscle Shoals was received at the war department.

Indiana political leaders held a series of conferences on Presidential preference questions.

Secretary Mellon informed the budget director that effective prohibition enforcement depends on strengthening the coast guard fleet.

President Coolidge approved the shipping board resolution placing operation of the merchant fleet in the hands of the emergency fleet corporation.

TRANSPORTATION ACT IS UPHELD BY CONFERENCE

Say No Change Should be Made Until After Fair Trial

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5. (AP)—Results achieved during the last year in the improvement of railway service and the handling of an unparalleled tonnage have demonstrated that the transportation act of 1920, embodies a national transportation policy that is "constructive and sound," the National Transportation conference held in a report adopted today at its concluding session here.

"No change should be made in any important provision of the transportation act until it has had a fair trial which as yet it has not had," said the conference report, which included representatives of transportation industrial and labor interests throughout the country, assembled under the auspices of the chamber of commerce of the United States.

Phases of the transportation problem considered by the conference include consolidation of carriers, rate readjustments, and labor relations.

To Hold Conferences.

With respect to the latter, the conference expressed the hope that conferences may be arranged between the carriers and their employees and the public looking to the development of a conservative plan for perfecting the existing machinery for dealing with the labor question.

On the question of railroad consolidation the conference took the position that no changes should be made in that provision of the transportation act except such as may be necessary to "facilitate consolidations and to enable the consolidated companies by voluntary action to incorporate under federal law."

Asserting public interest requires that American railroads be privately owned and operated under a comprehensive system of government operation the conference held such regulation should be accomplished thru "administrative" agencies rather than thru "ineffective legislation," dealing with rates or other specific problems of railroad operation and management.

Holding present railroad rates as a whole, to be not "unreasonably high" the conference declared the present problem is one of a better adjustment of relative rates—not a general reduction of all rates.

A readjustment to correct the present "great lack of uniformity" in class rates, the conference believed should result in a measurable increase in revenue which could be applied to the reduction of commodity rates justifiable.

MEXICO "FEDERALS" TO ATTACK REBELS

TAMPICO, Mexico, Jan. 10.—(A.P.)—The Palatinate question has been much to the fore in negotiations between the British and French governments in the past ten days.

In the exchanges of views it appears that the British government complained that French occupation authorities in the Palatinate had been encouraging the Separatists, instead of maintaining absolute neutrality.

The French reply was that the French authorities had merely insured the maintenance of law and order.

It was contended in behalf of France that the measures enforced in the Palatinate were necessary because of open threats by the nationalists including a campaign to incite the population to violence against the occupying forces.

The advance column of five thousand men, commanded by General Luis Gutierrez which left Panned for Tuxpan with the object of flanking the rebels in Vera Cruz yesterday reached Puerto Lobos and Palo Blanco and occupied both places without fighting.

A body of seamen has been assembled in Tampico to form units for manning the gunboats and coast guard ships which will cooperate in an attack by sea against the rebels in Vera Cruz.

CHICAGO POLICEMAN FACES GRAND JURY

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—John P. Mulcahy, a policeman, who shot and killed Jennie Plarski, also known as Jennie Plarr, a checkroom girl in a cafe, during a New Year's party, was recommended to the grand jury on a charge of involuntary manslaughter by a coroner's jury which today conducted a second inquest over the girl's body.

Today's jury also recommended that James J. Kelly, another policeman who traded pistols with Mulcahy after the shooting should remove doubts in her mind.

FILIPINO FANATICS KILL MANY POLICE

Manila, Jan. 10.—(A.P.)—A final official despatch received from Surigao province, island of Mindanao states that five police—probably constabulary soldiers—have been killed by religious fanatics in a town on Bucas Island. The name of the town was not given. Reports from Surigao yesterday told of the slaying of 19 constabulary soldiers by the fanatics.

Still another proposal for disposition of Muscle Shoals was received at the war department.

Indiana political leaders held a series of conferences on Presidential preference questions.

Secretary Mellon informed the budget director that effective prohibition enforcement depends on strengthening the coast guard fleet.

President Coolidge approved the shipping board resolution placing operation of the merchant fleet in the hands of the emergency fleet corporation.

FOURTEEN TAKEN BY OFFICERS IN PALM BEACH WAR

Twenty Year Old "Bad Man" Arrested Without Struggle

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 10. (A.P.)—Albert Miller, 20 year old "bad man" who officers declared fired the shot that killed Deputy Sheriff Fred Baker, yesterday morning at the camp of the notorious Ashley gang in the Florida woods country, 25 miles north of here, was captured by deputies today and lodged in jail here.

Four alleged associates and intimates of the gang also were taken in custody. They were George Marion and wife, and P. N. Jenkins, partner of Albert Miller, and his wife. Mrs. Marion is a daughter of the elder Ashley, slain yesterday. Mrs. Jenkins also formerly was an Ashley.

Miller was taken without a struggle. He suffered two severe wounds in yesterday's battle at the camp. Despite his wounds, the outlaw had covered some 12 miles thru an almost impenetrable jungle of undergrowth before capture.

Capture of John Ashley, son of the gang member slain yesterday, Sheriff Baker reported tonight, is believed to be imminent.

Harford Mobley, who with John Ashley, is held to be the leading spirit of the Ashley gang, was declared by Sheriff Baker not to have been at the camp Wednesday.

Definite information was obtained today that he had gone to the Bahama Island. Stormy weather delayed his return it is thought, but with today's calm, it was expected he would attempt to land tonight and preparations were made for his capture.

Rumors of violent action heard regarding the landing of Miller in late today were allayed by a statement from Sheriff Baker to the effect that in his opinion John Ashley was the slayer of the sheriff's deputy.

Miller and Jenkins, was set on fire last night, members of the sheriff's posse put out the flames.

Fourteen persons, including two small Mobley children, alleged to be intimates and shielders of members of the Ashley gang now are confined in jail here.

FRANCE AND BRITAIN DISCUSS PALITINATE

PARIS, Jan. 10. (A.P.)—The Palatinate question has been much to the fore in negotiations between the British and French governments in the past ten days.

In the exchanges of views it appears that the British government complained that French occupation authorities in the Palatinate had been encouraging the Separatists, instead of maintaining absolute neutrality.

The French reply was that the French authorities had merely insured the maintenance of law and order.

Mrs. Sanderson still was confined to her hotel room today in the care of a nurse.

Bassett declared his action was taken out of deference to Mrs. Sanderson who had suffered thru having employed him. While he declared he did not know what had made his wife charge that Mrs. Sanderson might marry him, Bassett asserted his resignation should remove doubts in her mind.

Booze Law Violators Acquitted By Juries

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Five men, all alleged to have been connected with the illicit traffic of liquor in Chicago, were acquitted by juries in the courts almost simultaneously today. In one instance a federal investigation of the manner in which the verdict was reached was reported to have been started a few minutes after the jury made its report.

Daniel McFall, former deputy sheriff, accused of the murder of Jerry O'Connor, first victim in the Palm Beach war between rival bands of beer runners that resulted in the deaths of several victims in two months time, was acquitted by a jury after it deliberated one hour and 45 minutes.

O'Connor was killed in a saloon where two rival bands of beer runners out on a midnight hunt for business came face to face and when he was shot he was found to be wearing a bullet-proof vest.

Guy C. Crapple, assistant United States district attorney, says the department of justice would be asked to make an investigation and determine, if possible, how the verdict was reached.

So far as is known all on board the L-24, numbering 43, perished.

Details are somewhat meager, but it seems that the Atlantic fleet was leaving Weymouth in various groups, including several submarines, for the spring cruise when the Resolution, belonging to the royal sovereign class rammed the L-24 which was a minelaying vessel and had fourteen live mines aboard. The accident occurred in a fog when the vessels had opened out in channel.

Details Uncertain.

Another report says that the collision occurred when a combined attack on the fleet was being carried out by submarines from Portland, Portsmouth and Plymouth. The L-24 sank immediately to the bottom and the whole area was searched by the mine sweeping flotilla no trace of the ill fated vessel was found. There is a bare possibility, naval men say that there may be some survivors, that is if the submarine can be brought to the surface depending upon how the vessel was struck, the crew may have been able to close the water tight compartments in which case they might survive for 48 hours.

After the disaster the Resolution returned to Portland Harbor, where she will be examined by divers at daybreak. A court of inquiry will be held aboard the Resolution tomorrow, when also salvage efforts, interrupted by darkness today, will be resumed.

The suggestion of Ewing Emerson of Vincennes for Coolidge state manager was said to have met with the general approval of both Postmaster General New and Senator Watson.

It was believed also that he would be acceptable to former Governor Goodrich and Will Hays, former national committee chairman.

MISSING SWINDLER FINALLY LOCATED

PEORIA, Ill., Jan. 20. (A.P.)—A Schapiro who is alleged to have swindled many Peoria people of thousands of dollars as manager of a "bucketshop" which he operated here as D. Clarke and Co. is under arrest in Springfield, according to information received here. He was arrested in a Springfield hotel by deputy sheriff John Walsh who came across his name on register and remembered the case in which the man disappeared a few days before indictment was returned against him and two salesmen who worked for him.

He was locked in the county jail at Springfield to await action of the Peoria county sheriff.

It is estimated Peoria people lost between $20,000 and $25,000.

A THOUGHT

The glory of young men is their strength; and the beauty of old men is the gray head.—Prov. 20:29.

So life's year begins and closes; days, though short'ning, still can shine;

What though youth gave love and roses.

Age still leaves us friends and wine.

YOUTH OVERSTRAINED
SAYS JUDGE LINDSAY

Large Audience Listens to Brilliant Lecture by Denver Juvenile Court Head—Must Teach Children to Do Right for Right's Sake.

"We must know how to overcome evil with good" was the central thought of a splendid address in defense of the American youth, delivered last night by Judge Ben Lindsay of Denver before an audience that packed Central Christian church. The judge's lecture was rich with the experiences of twenty-five years on the juvenile court bench of Denver, where he has been fighting the battles of the child. He clinched the lessons he wished to impart with sparkling stories drawn from that experience.

Judge Lindsay stated at the outset that American children are better than those of any other age; they are the brightest and the best that have been produced. But they are overstrained. They are subject to hundreds of temptations of modern life, which the children of other generations did not know. It was in 1899 that the first laws authorizing a children's court were placed on the statute books of Colorado. Illinois was a close second in this needed improvement.

The speaker said in part: "Sympathetic understanding is needed in dealing with young people. A child will play harder than he works, because he is interested. There was one gang near the railroad tracks of Denver, with which the policemen had trouble. One little prisoner was brought into court. The officer glared at him, called him a little liar, because he would not tell on the other members of the gang. The lad refused to snitch. That in itself showed loyalty. He finally told me there were seven in the gang that had broken into a box car in the railroad yards. I wrote a note to the gang, explaining that no one had snitched, and telling that if they would come to court and talk it over I would not send them up this time. They came, but there were fourteen instead of seven. Little Billy, who had brought the gang that the policeman could not catch, explained that the other seven had not been in the mischief, but that they ran with the crowd and were interested in the note I had sent.

"Seizing that boy out to get that gang to come to court was the warrant of the new justice. Billy was a sheriff, but he did not know it. The old warrant reads that the people are against John Smith. The boys recognized this in the policeman; but when they were trusted and given a chance, they became good citizens.

He Longed to Build

"A lad had given trouble by stealing lumber from a yard in the neighborhood. In his back yard he had built what he told me was an elevated railroad, the first rolling stock of the line consisted of a soap box, stolen from the corner grocer, and placed on rude wheels. It was not the first railroad which was stolen. I have had to try some men for making money out of unlawful franchises. As soon as we discovered that lad's longing to build things, we knew what to do. He is now an architect in Denver, a builder and an honest citizen.

"A gang of boys who had been swimming in a pool near the railroad, and with little regard for bathing suits, were brought into court by an irate officer. It was a hot day, the law had been disobeyed and I faced a difficulty. One of the lads looked out of the window into the courthouse yard, where fountains played over naked boys of brass and iron. One of the boys blurted out that those boys didn't have nothin' on except a coat of paint, and that didn't cover much. The cop hadn't pinched them. This gave me an idea.

"Would the people of Denver do more for boys of brass and iron than for those of flesh and blood. I sent the entire gang swimming in the fountain minus bathing suits. Denver woke up; camera men came from the newspapers and took some pictures they couldn't print. Soon afterward, some business men came to me. They said it was a shame the boys had no swimming hole. Out of that grew beaches and lakes in the public parks of Denver, where children can bathe and swim under careful supervision and enjoy themselves without fear of doing wrong.

The Right Motives

"We need to teach the youth of today not so much to be afraid to get caught—they have that fear—but to be afraid to do wrong. You may tell them to be good and they'll be happy, but you know that is not always the case. You may caution them that to do wrong means punishment, but they see rich men in Texas swindle the people out of a hundred million dollars, and go free of jail. They should learn to do right because it is right. I lined up a gang of boys and inquired into their motives for doing right. These are the answers: "Cop'll get you." "You'll go to jail." "You'll get a licking." and "You'll go to Hell." These are what children fear will happen. If they don't do right, Educate a citizen with that idea, and when he gets to the joint wherewhore money or influence will render him immune from the cop and jail, he will do wrong. Doing right because it is right, taking a licking rather than tell a lie, is the only safe method.

"I would say a word to the parents of these children, these boys and girls who form such a problem. Don't threaten a child; it is dangerous. The thing that happens to him in the formative stages of his life may crop out twenty years later. The modern parent has problems; there is overstrain and temptation. Some have to be breadwinners and homemakers at the same time. Industry is pulling the girls and boys into strange environments. Parents should remember that their children know much more than they think they know. The parents are not with the boys and girls in their school and among their friends, unless they have the confidence of their children, they fail to understand their many problems.

Hear the Evidence

"Don't be an unjudicial parent, one who jumps at conclusions as to the child's guilt or innocence without hearing the evidence in the case. A gang of boys threw eggs into a street car one night, outraging and besmirching the passengers. An officer was sent into the neighborhood to investigate. None of the lads knew anything about it. Finally a little girl told. A boy won't snitch because he knows he'll get his face smashed by members of the gang. A girl knows no one will punish her, so she tells all she knows—at least this is the boy's version of the matter.

"Johnny was one of the suspects in the egg throwing. An officer went to the home and Johnny's mother was up in arms. She said Johnny would never do such a thing, and Johnny of course said he didn't. Billy's mother was different. Billy's mother was judicious. She said she did not know whether Billy had anything to do with the case or not, but it sounded just like him. Billy told the truth, admitted his guilt, because he had such a mother. Johnny lied. Billy went to court and then brought in the rest of the gang.

"Johnny was half unconscious condition. When DeSilva fully regained his senses he discovered that the thugs had kicked over a gas lamp leaving the place in darkness and had taken his money.

About the time DeSilva staggered to his feet, A. R. Myrick passed that way and discovering what had happened phoned for the police from the Kellogg restaurant.

Mr. DeSilva described the men as about thirty years of age. One of them wore an overcoat and cap and the other wore a stocking cap and sweater with a jacket under it. Both were clean shaven and were about 5 feet and 8 or 10 inches in height. It is reported that several people saw two men answering the description given by DeSilva yesterday. The police are investigating the case.

"I would be charitable with parents, knowing as I do their problems. I would bring together the church, the home, the school to help save this problem, to overcome evil with good, and to do with kindness, charity, intelligence and love the thing which jails, brutality and misguided courts have failed to do, and if possible insert a little love, even into the law."

Rev. M. L. Pontius presided at the meeting last night, and Judge Lindsay was introduced by Attorney John J. Reeve.

Three organ numbers played by Miss Alice Mathis preceded the lecture.

CHARLES DE SILVA
VICTIM OF THUGS

Two Holdup Men Enter Store Club Owner and Obtain Small Sum of Money.

Charles DeSilva, who is engaged in manufacturing brick chili in the Illinois Avenue building formerly occupied by the Kellogg Brothers as an office underwent an exciting experience last night when he was knocked to the floor by one of two men who entered his establishment looking for money.

The men, neither of whom was masked, came up to the door of DeSilva's place about 6:30 o'clock and engaged in conversation with Mr. DeSilva regarding topics of the day for some time, finally leading up to Mr. DeSilva's business and finances. By the action of the two, DeSilva soon discovered they were very much under the influence of liquor and when informed by him that he had no cash register they demanded the money which he had on his person and which amounted to only 99 cents, stating they wanted it to purchase food with.

When Mr. DeSilva offered to provide them with something to eat they said it was money they wanted and one of them grabbed him by the left arm and the spokesman aimed a blow at DeSilva's head with a club which he tried to dodge but succeeded in only partially warding off. He was struck a glancing blow on the right side of the head inflicting a scalp wound and knocking him to the floor, where they left him in a half unconscious condition.

When DeSilva fully regained his senses he discovered that the thugs had kicked over a gas lamp leaving the place in darkness and had taken his money.

About the time DeSilva staggered to his feet, A. R. Myrick passed that way and discovering what had happened phoned for the police from the Kellogg restaurant.

* WRITES PLAIN FACTS ABOUT FLORIDA *

Miss Mabel Goltra of this city, who is spending the winter months at Ft. Myers, Fla., has written the following letter for publication in the Journal:

Ft. Myers, Jan. 3, 1924.

Dear Journal Readers:

When I reached Ft. Myers this year I surely found a land of sunshine and felt that I had stepped back into the middle of summer. It is the busy time of the year in Florida and the fields of celery, lettuce and peppers have a fine appearance in many parts of the state.

The cities and towns seem to be in a flourishing condition, many factories for the manufacture of boxes for peppers, oranges, grape fruit having been built in the last two years. The poinsettias, the flaming red hibiscus and begonias and the yellow bignonia hanging in festoons from trees and verandas add much to the general color scheme. One would have to imagine the most brilliant colors together with many shades of green, to get a glimpse of southern Florida at this time of year.

The seventy-five varieties of palms in Ft. Myers are probably more beautiful than in any other city in Florida. St. Petersburg has just placed an order with a nursery man here for $7,000 worth of palms to be shipped to that city and planted on the golf course there.

On Monday before Christmas the men in our party went hunting and brought in two wild turkeys. The Southampton people with whom I am staying this winter entertained the party of nine at Xmas dinner.

The dining room was elaborately decorated with the Xmas greens which are native here, interspersed with poinsettias and red hibiscus. The table was laden with good things and a wild turkey at either end. The next day the party drove up along the Caloosahatchee river until we came to a lovely spot where the moss was hanging from the live oaks and many air plants were dotted along the branches. Here we stopped and had lunch, consisting of cold sliced turkey, fresh vegetables and hot coffee. We were entertained by a crane and other birds catching fish at the water's edge.

On the way back a grove man who is a friend of the party invited us to stop and get all the grape fruit and oranges we could carry back with us. He said the price is so low that it would not pay to ship it now. It is discouraging when they have been to so much expense for both labor and fertilizer. The trees were loaded with fruit, the lower branches lying on the sand all around the trees. It seems a great mistake to have so much fruit wasting in the south when people in the north need it. Today is the fifth of January but I can hardly realize it, altho we have been to another wild turkey dinner. I remarked on the way that it ought to seem like January when we were eating turkey, but it felt more like the Fourth of July. It cooled off in the afternoon and some friends drove over to Punta Gorda on the gulf, where one of the party treated us to an oyster supper. One day a party of fifteen drove to Crescent Beach on the gulf where we enjoyed an excellent dinner. One of the party provided trout which was fried over a fire made of beach wood on the sand. We spent the afternoon on the beach while some of the party gathered conch shells, which made delicious broth, more delicate than clams. Each year some new hard roads are built in Florida and several new bridges are under construction, which will shorten the distance traveled in reaching southern Florida.

* REVIVAL IN PROGRESS AT WOODSON CHURCH *

Rev. C. H. Drumm Conducting
Special Series of Meetings at Woodson Christian Church—
Other Woodson News.

The revival services that are being conducted by Rev. C. H. Drumm at the Christian church, are nightly gaining in interest and attendance and are meeting with every success. A special singer, Miss Gertrude Porterfield, of Marshville, Ohio, conducts the choir work and congregational singing and is a gifted soloist.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church met yesterday afternoon at the church for their regular business meeting, which included the election of the following officers:

President—Mrs. Louise Henry.
First Vice-President — Mrs. C. Rolston.

Second Vice-President — Mrs. J. H. Shirley.
Secretary—Mrs. Margaret Kitner.

Treasurer — Mrs. Margaret Owings.

It was decided at this meeting to serve dinner and supper in the church basement next Thursday the proceeds to go toward the expenses of the revival meeting.

The Unity Workers of the Presbyterian church served supper Wednesday evening at the manse, which in spite of unfavorable weather conditions, was well patronized, and a financial success.

Mrs. Will Craig is spending a few days in Jacksonville as the guest of Mrs. Lee Davis and Miss Minnie Green. Mrs. Craig will leave in about a week for Excelsior Springs for a short visit.

Herbert Colton and little son of Minot, North Dakota who spent the holidays in Woodson with Mr. and Mrs. William Colton, arrived in Minot Sunday. They found the weather there showing every indication of spring after encountering weather from 2 to 32 degrees below zero on the trip home.

JACKSONVILLE MAY JOIN DEBATING LEAGUE

Principal Kaiser is in communication with Millikin University in regard to a Debating League, sponsored by the university, which the Jacksonville school, together with eight other of the largest high schools of this district, including that of Springfield and Decatur, has been invited to join.

Details of the debate have not yet been received by Mr. Kaiser, but he has signified the willingness of Jacksonville to compete in the Debating League.

The League will be divided into three triangular teams, with the winners of each team meeting at Decatur, and the final debate held at Millikin University.

Definite action toward selecting debating teams has not yet been taken by the high school, but the Public Speaking class and the Literary societies offer fields of splendid material from which it will not be difficult to select debaters who will uphold Jacksonville's reputation as a winner, and add to the many honors she has already achieved.

As judge of a debate between Springfield and Decatur at Springfield Friday night, Mr. Kaiser found opportunity to discuss plans with authorities of those schools, in regard to the annual Tri-City debate between Jacksonville, Springfield and Quincy, which will take place in the early spring.

MORE WARRANTS OUT FOR YOUNG IN MARION WAR

(Continued from Page 1) a most fortunate thing that the troops entered Herrin when they did—for if a raid had been attempted at Herrin that night without troops, there might have been a thousand men killed."

A third group of warrants were issued today for the arrest of S. Glenn Young, and for others, who are alleged to have taken a prominent part in the raids. The warrants are signed by men arrested by Young in recent raids on the charge of larceny and assault.

From now on the fines will stay in this county, he declared, "if you sell booze you'll be caught and I'm going to catch you."

Layman spoke from a raised platform in the Rome Club, former headquarters of the Knights of the Flaming Circle, before a meeting of those who have been captured recently in the raids.

Officers of the county and city were present. He advised the men that fifty-four federal injunctions had been applied for by Victor L. Armitage, federal prohibition officer to close their places.

"It has come to the time," he said, "when you must obey the law. Remove the bars from your places or I'll remove them for you. Sheriff Galligan has pledged himself to law enforcement and it's going to be done. Get into some legitimate business, then it may be that you'll get the benefit of the doubt."

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 10.—W. W. Anderson, chief of prohibition forces in Illinois, who remained here today following a prohibition conference with E. C. Yellowley of Washington, Wednesday denied that he has sent a telegram to Marion, Ill., which said: "stop all raids in Williamson county at once." The telegram he sent, Mr. Anderson said was "make no further raids under present conditions."

"I sent that message because I want the raids conducted by federal officers and I do not want them to have trouble with state militia," the prohibition chief said.

CASS COUNTY SHERIFF SUMMONED BY DEATH

James R. Sligh Answers Final Summons After Brief Illness—Miss Emma Suffern Passed Away Thursday After Long Illness

Virginia, Jan. 10.—The sudden passing of James R. Sligh Thursday morning comes as a shock to the community, as his illness had not been considered of a serious nature. Mr. Sligh had been confined to his bed since Friday of last week, and his death came very unexpectedly at about 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

Mr. Sligh was born in Worcester, Ohio, April 10, 1865. In the year 1889 he was united in marriage to Miss Emma Kirschner of Chadderville, who survives him. They were the parents of one daughter, now Mrs. Christine Walbaum of Ashland.

Mr. Sligh was highly esteemed by all who knew him. He had held various offices in the county in past years and at the time of his death was serving as sheriff of Cass county.

The deceased was affiliated with the I. O. O. F. and Knights of Pythias and was a man of upright character and sterling worth. His death means a distinct loss not only to the home circle but to friends and the community as a whole.

The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed and will be announced later.

Miss Suffern Dies

The death of Miss Emma Suffern, a well known Cass county school teacher, occurred at the family home on Cass street at an early hour Thursday morning. Death was due to a complication of diseases and came as a welcome relief from suffering.

Miss Suffern had for many months been a great sufferer, but throughout all the long period of ill health her spirit was ever one of sweet patience.

The deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Suffern, well known earlier residents of Cass county. She was known as one of the best educators of the county, having taught for a period of 19 consecutive years in one school. She had also been connected with the city schools for a number of years.

Surviving are three sisters and three brothers: Misses Mattie and Mary Suffern at home, Mrs. Nellie Knight of Beardstown; James of Pasadena, Calif., and Samuel and William Suffern of this city.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Presbyterian church, in charge of Rev. Max B. Wiles, the day and hour to be announced.

LA FOLLETTE INSISTS RATES BE FIXED ON SERVICE COST BASIS

Senator Cummins Retains Place on Commerce
Committee

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10. (AP)—Drastic amendment of the transportation and railroad valuation acts was proposed today in the senate by Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, leader of the Republican insurgent block and the man who yesterday brought about election of Ellison D. Smith, a South Carolina Democrat, as chairman of the interstate commerce committee.

At the same time Chairman Smith said that he would call the committee together within a few days and that it would handle railroad legislation "sensibly and in the manner the people will want their representatives in congress to handle it."

He will make a statement tomorrow further outlining his views.

The makeup of the committee was announced today with formal confirmation by the senate of the selection as a member of Albert B. Cummins of Iowa, who was denied yesterday as chairman. Some senators had questioned the right of Senator Cummins to a place on the committee in view of the senate vote against him for the chairmanship, but Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, obtained unanimous consent for the confirmation of his appointment.

Under the amendments proposed by Senator LaFollette railroad rates would be fixed on the basis of the cost of service. Mr. LaFollette explained in a statement that by cost of service he meant operating expenses, plus actual capital cost, such as interest on bonds, plus fair dividends for stock that represents money invested.

"I reject the theory," Senator LaFollette said, "that public utilities have any right to earn profits on inflated and fictitious values."

Judge Lindsey Guest at Dinner

Judge Ben Lindsey of Denver was the guest of honor at a dinner given at the Tea Tray Thursday night at 6:30 o'clock by E. A. Olds. It was while in Denver years ago as a court reporter that Mr. Olds came to know Judge Lindsey and he has been his warm admirer ever since that time. It also so happened that Judge Lindsey's brother, Chalmers Lindsey, a railroad man now deceased, was for many years an intimate friend of Mr. Olds.

The group of men in the company last night found that Judge Lindsey is equally as interesting at a dinner table as on the lecture platform. They found also that like some other men of large caliber, the prominence gained thru the years has left him just as approachable as could be true of any man in the more humble walks of life.

The company included, in addition to the host and guest of honor, Mayor E. E. Crabtree, W. L. Fay, State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson, City Attorney Walter Bellatti, Judge W. E. Thomson, R. Y. Rowe, Judge H. P. Samuell, W. A. Fay, E. A. Olds, Jr., J. W. Walton and Rev. M. L. Pontius.

Altho the weather was unfavorable, the sale was largely attended and satisfactory prices ruled. Mr. Hills during his lifetime was accounted one of the substantial farmers of the county and the offerings were of good quality.

The sale list included 14 head of horses, 43 hogs, a large number of sheep, 4 cows, a number of heifers and steers, in addition to grain, wagons and harness and an unusually large number of farm implements and household belongings. The implements like the other offerings were in good condition.

WILL SEEK SHOE FACTORY FOR CITY

Chamber of Commerce Directors Authorize Secretary to Impress Brown Company That Jacksonville Wants a Factory—Mellon Tax Plan Approved.

The directors of the chamber of commerce at a meeting Thursday night authorized Secretary Welch to assure the Brown Shoe Co. that their conditions will be met if at a later time the company is willing to erect a shoe factory in this city.

A number of months since when representatives of the chamber of commerce visited the offices of the company and later the company sent representatives here, the promise was given that Jacksonville should have consideration at some future date. The cities where Brown Shoe factories have been built have always been satisfied with the projects, the company exceeding promises in the matter of the number of persons employed.

John W. Merrigan, vice president of the chamber, presided at the meeting last night and the directorate was well represented. One other matter of importance receiving attention was the adoption of a resolution by the directors favoring the Mellon plan of tax reduction. This is a non-political matter and business organizations throughout the country are taking action upon it and urging their representatives in congress to favor the Mellon plan because of the belief that general business will greatly benefit thereby.

The directors also discussed the development of the gas field northeast of the city and made it plain that they will be glad to assist in financing a plan for the building of a pipe line just as soon as the project can be worked out on a business basis.

The board authorized the appointment of a committee to cooperate with local musical leaders in arranging for the coming of the federated music clubs of the state for the convention in April. At that time the Chicago Symphony Orchestra will give a concert and a great many musicians of note will be here to take part in concert programs. The people of the city will have an unusual opportunity for musical entertainment.

It is proposed to finance the necessary expense by the sale of tickets for the concerts and it is the wish of the chamber of commerce to co-operate actively in making the convention a success. At least 100 delegates will attend, representing all parts of the state.

Various other matters relating to chamber of commerce work were discussed.

We belonged to the same church and we were thrown together in many other associations of a public character. I esteemed him very highly. His many friends here will learn with much regret that he is gone."

IDEAL Hog Waterer

Saves 25% on Feed For Hogs

Takes the chill off the water the hogs drink. Enables them to put on the same flesh with one-fourth less feed. Cold water chills their stomachs, stops digestion, lowers body temperature. Hogs on cold water have to turn more corn into fuel to keep them warm, make slower growth and yield smaller profits. An Ideal waterer will save this extra feed and save you time and labor chopping ice. Most modern and efficient waterer for every day service ever made.

See This Waterer NOW!

It's made right. Supplies clear water with the chill off when the temperature is 40 below. Made of heavy galvanized steel in sizes to suit all needs. Special lamp heater furnished.

KIWANIS GETS PLAIN TALK FROM LINDSEY

Denver Judge and Department Commanders of Military Organizations are Guests of Local Club.

"We must lift the spells of fear and get the confidence of young America, which is passing us like a mighty river," said Judge Ben Lindsey in an address yesterday afternoon before the local Kiwanis club. The children's friend from Denver gave the Jacksonville business men some plain talk, telling them of conditions among the young people of the cities which are indeed alarming. In his opinion, industry is having much to do with the decay of family life. It is now impossible to maintain family standards as they were a generation ago when there was plenty of work in the home for the children.

Even with the Boy Scout movement and the efforts to provide care for the boys and girls that are being carried forward on every hand, thousands are going wrong. Judge Lindsey says that the record of divorce in our large cities does not tell half the story. In some cities there is one divorce to every three marriages, to say nothing of the many separations that do not get into the divorce courts.

Following Judge Lindsey's address, Col. O. C. Smith was called upon to introduce the department commanders of the various military organizations, who were in the city for the military dinner last night. They were special guests of the club at the meeting. Col. L. L. Lancaster of Decatur, department commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Col. John J. Bullington, department commander of the American Legion made brief addresses.

Col. Bullington, describing the work of the American Legion, was eloquent in his praise of the work of that organization. When the boys returned from the front an effort was made to find some agency that would reach all of them. The church, fraternal orders, the government, all failed; and finally the Legion was born to meet a crying need. It now has nearly a million members, with 11,000 posts in the United States. The Legion and its auxiliaries are reported in nearly every foreign department. In the state of Illinois there are 700 posts, and the members of many of these posts are caring for eighty-four Boy Scout patrols.

Other guests at the meeting were C. E. Segner, commander of the local Legion post, and Grant Hughes, the local adjudicator.

The films include pictures of dog races, the all-Alaskan sweepstakes race; Alaska big game such as moose, reindeer, caribou, bear, beaver, white whaling and fishing. Mr. Thelin and his Alaskan films are endorsed by the governor and Legislature of Alaska and by leading educational institutions in the United States.

Admission is ten cents to both matinee and evening shows.

Harvey, the present "King of Minstrels," to put clean, high class colored shows on the map, in the form of an amiable and entertaining octopus, and spread its tentacles out to tap most centers of population from New York to Boston, Chicago and the Pacific coast.

Colored minstrel shows, as we know them, sprang from humble beginnings in the music halls of many years ago. Even then the appearance of colored minstrel performers, singers and mimics suggested to managers and critics that the scheme of presenting colored minstrels on the stage could be refined and elevated, and it did not take long for the far seeing manager of Harvey's Minstrels to place his attraction on an equal plane with the highest class of entertainment in the estimation of the great theatre-going public.

Enjoy Spread and Delightful Musical Program at Central Christian Church — Noted Guests Present.

The United States senate has been asked to give its consent, on the terms proposed by President Harding on February 24th, to adhesion by the United States to the protocol of the Permanent Court of International Justice by 91 per cent of the members of the National Council of the National Economic League who voted on a referendum mailed to them on November 24th.

This vote is an accurate reflection of public opinion, the National Economic League believes, for the reason that its National Council is composed of men from every state, who are elected by preferential ballot solely with the view to their standing or qualifications as leaders of public opinion.

The referendum was worded as follows:

"Should the United States senate at this session of Congress promptly give its advice and consent to adhesion by the United States to the protocol of the Permanent Court of International Justice on the terms proposed by President Harding on February 24, 1923?"

The vote was as follows: Yes, 1601; no, 155.

The returns from each state, which the league also publishes indicate that public opinion on the subject is practically the same in all parts of the country. In Michigan, Idaho, North Carolina, Rhode Island and Oregon the affirmative vote was unanimous. The largest percentage of negative votes came from New Mexico, the vote in that state being 15 "yes" and 9 "no".

Quick

The most terrible experience you ever had probably was tame compared with Ruth Craycraft's of Greenup, Ky. Trapped on a railroad track, she had enough presence of mind to lie down quickly and hug the ties between the steel rails. This saved her life, though a locomotive and 85 freight cars passed over her, tearing off her clothes.

Ruth's experience will please those educators whose "intelligence tests" are based on fast thinking.

Fast thinking is fine for emergency. But slow thinking, with its deliberate decisions, is usually better. Catastrophes like the World War are the result of fast thinking—snap-judgment.

Ahead

Often you wonder why men of superior brains and ability lose out while men of inferior brains and talents rise to success and gain the whip-hand. Professor Bingham, of Carnegie Institute of Technology, finds that superiority in intelligence contributes less to business success than does superiority in such things as personality.

In other words, there are so many gourmets and crabs in the world, that people are glad to pay a premium to the genial. That premium is success.

Footlights

Are you satisfied with movies as they are, or do you want "better stuff"? In New York state, various prominent organizations band together, urging "non-theatrical movies." By this they apparently mean educational movies.

That will come by evolution, not by rush. Day may come when educational movies will be more popular than fictional movies—but not in our generation. The moving picture is destined to be the second-greatest educational force. Radio will be first. Maybe they'll be used together. Right now, both are toys. So was the airplane in its early days.

Fire

Fires in our country kill 15,000 people a year—and destroy $50 million dollars worth of property. So report insurance companies.

Nine-tenths of these fires are preventable, experts claim.

Public education along this line should begin at home. Teach your children that fire is the most dangerous force imprisoned by man.

Killer

A rifle nearly 11 feet long is captured by government game wardens. It weighs 250 pounds. Wardens say it can kill 92 birds with one shot. Not lawful to use such a gun, of course.

Many, while eating a chicken dinner, condemn hunters who shoot wild birds. Just why it is worse to murder a bird in the woods than a chicken or steer or sheep or hog, we are unable to see. Referred to Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Plant Life.

Beauty

A stenographer sues a dentist for $50,000, claiming he spoiled her beauty by extracting the wrong two teeth.

If two teeth are worth that much, you can figure the value of your whole body—and find yourself a millionaire.

However, on perusing the details, we learn that the teeth in question were wisdom teeth.

THE LIFE OF GENERAL MARTIN HARDIN

Mention was made recently in a news dispatch from St. Augustine, Fla., of the death of General Martin D. Hardin, who spent the earlier years of his life in Jacksonville.

Subsequently some facts about General Hardin's career were presented by Mr. Ensley Moore. More recently B. R. Hieronymus of Springfield, president of the Illinois National bank, sent to the Journal the memorial notice of General Hardin published by the Loyal Legion of the U. S.

Mr. Hieronymus is a member of the Loyal Legion of Chicago with which General Hardin was associated clear up to the time of his death. These terse paragraphs from the Legion memorial outline very clearly the facts in Gen. Hardin's great career:

Now, as to the civil life of

Gen. Hardin, we will have to make it reluctantly very brief.

Gen. Hardin was born June

26th, 1873, at Jacksonville, Ill.

The initial "D" in his name was merely an initial, and stood for no name, so a letter from West

Point, dated Dec. 21st, 1923 informed us.

His father, Col. John D. Hardin, fought in the Black Hawk wars, and was the hero of Buena

Vista where he was killed.

Abraham Lincoln met Miss

Todd (his future wife) at Col.

Hardin's house, and Gen. Martin

D. Hardin was appointed to West Point by the late President Lincoln.

After the Civil War, Gen.

Martin D. Hardin came to Chicago, studied law, and became a lawyer.

He is the most practical car that a farmer can own, as it will go places where a large car cannot. It costs much less in upkeep. A Ford truck delivers his the reach of ordinary farmers.

The field work on the 'Ford-

'Dale' farm is done with the Fordson tractor and gang plow. This will shorten the plowing days just one half. Other farming implements can be used with this tractor. No other one has ever been placed on the market that equals

the Ford.

PRUNE RECIPES

Does your family refuse to eat plain every-day stewed prunes? Then try these recipes for luncheon or dinner and "slip one" over on them. The very fact that the time is out of the ordinary for serving prunes will aid the house-keeper. While John may say sternly: "You know I don't eat stewed prunes" at breakfast time I'll warrant he'll eat this prune cocktail at dinner time without a murmur.

In the winter when succulent vegetables are high and in some localities hard to get, prunes are an important part of the diet. They should be used often in some form or other.

Prune Cocktail.

Choose fine large prunes. Allow three prunes for each person to be served. Wash well thru several waters and let stand in cold water to cover over night. Bring slowly to the boiling point in the same water, reduce heat and simmer until the water is absorbed and the prunes are tender but not mushy or broken. Let stand in the liquid until cool. When cool cut in halves and remove stone. Cut each half in two and put in cocktail glasses. Add one teaspoon lemon juice, one teaspoon sugar and two tablespoons orange juice to each glass and chill. Serve very cold.

Ring of Prunes.

One pound prunes, 1 cup sugar, 4 teaspoons granulated gelatin, whipped cream candied cherries and citron.

Wash prunes well and let stand over night in cold water to cover. In the morning stew slowly in this water until tender but not broken. Drain and measure juice. There should be two cups. Soften gelatin in one-quarter cup cold water and add to boiling prune juice and sugar. Stir until dissolved. When cool dip each prune, with the stone removed, into the liquid and place around a ring mold in rows. When firm to the touch add the jelly. Let stand in a cool place until set and cold. Turn out on large plate fill the center with whipped cream sweetened and flavored with vanilla, garnish with the cherries and thin narrow strips of citron and serve. This will serve eight persons.

Spiced Prunes.

One pound brown sugar, 1 cup cider vinegar, 1 cup water, 1 tablespoon peppercorns, 2 tablespoons broken bits of stick cinnamon, 1 tablespoon whole cloves, 1 orange, 1 lemon, 2 pounds prunes.

Make a syrup of sugar, water and vinegar. Add spices tied in a cheesecloth bag, orange and lemon sliced and seeds removed and boil twenty minutes. Steam prunes until tender and add to syrup. Cook slowly an hour longer. Remove spice bag and pour prunes and syrup into sterilized jars and seal.

Salad Prunes.

Scrub prunes and wash thru several waters. Cover with boiling water, cover bowl tightly and let stand until cold. Drain and remove stones. Mix one Neufchatel cheese with two tablespoons finely chopped nuts and enough cream of olive oil to make moist. Fill prunes with mixture and serve with head lettuce salad with French dressing. This amount of cheese and nuts will fill 16 large prunes and serve four persons.

Did you ever wash prunes well, remove the stones and fill the cavity with peanut butter? If you like peanut butter you will like these prunes better than candy and find them an excellent sweet-meat for the kiddies.

Prune Pudding.

One-half pound prunes, 2 cups cold water, 1 cup sugar, juice 1 lemon, 4 tablespoons cornstarch, 1 and one-third cups boiling water 1 inch stick cinnamon.

Wash prunes thru several waters. Put in stew pan, add cold water and let stand one hour. Boil until soft in this water. When cool enough to handle remove stones. Add prune juice, boiling water, sugar and cinnamon and simmer 15 minutes. Mix cornstarch with enough cold water to pour easily and stir into prune mixture. Cool five minutes. Remove stick of cinnamon, add lemon juice and pour into the mold. Let stand on ice in a cold place for two hours. Unmold and serve with plain whipped cream.

JULY DATES FOR AMERICAN OPEN SEEM PROBABLE

The national open golf championship will be decided over the Oakland Hills course in Detroit next year, and it is probable that the dates will be July 10 and 11.

The British open will be held at Hoylake June 25 and 26.

Several American topnotchers, including Gene Sarazen, Jim Barnes and Walter Hagen, are going abroad for the event.

Naturally they wish to be back in time to participate in the American open.

That's why the July dates seem probable. At first it was suggested that the tournaments be set for June 26 and 27.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR DUAL INDOOR MEET

HOPPE WON FIRST BLOCK FROM WELKER

ITHACA, N. Y., Jan. 10.—The dual indoor track meet scheduled between Michigan and Cornell on March 29, will be held in the hall here instead of Ann Arbor, Michigan, the athletic association announced today.

The meet originally was slated for Ithaca but was transferred to Michigan, where it was planned as a feature of the opening of the new Yost Field House.

Original plans were reverted to when it was found that the structure could not be completed in time for the meet.

ARMY AND COLUMBIA SIGN AN AGREEMENT

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Columbia and Army have signed a two-year football agreement for games in 1924 and 1925. It was announced here tonight, by Robert W. Watt, graduate manager of athletics at Columbia. This year's game will be played November 15 at West Point, where athletic authorities expect to have available new stands which will accommodate about 20,000. The 1925 contest will be played at the Polo Grounds on November 14.

The home and home agreement marks the first gridiron relations between the two institutions since 1899.

HOME-RUN HERO ONE SHORT YEAR DRAWS RELEASE

In 1922 "Tillie" Walker, Mackian outfielder, ranked third among the home-run hitters in the majors. Walker punched out some 37 circuit smashes. He stood next to Ken Williams in the American League, Hornsby leading both fields with 42 four-ply swats.

Last season Walker reposed on the bench for most of the time. Recent dispatches announced that the once great "Tillie" had been released—given the gate. Such is fate!

James Shanahan of Woodson was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Ira Thomas was a visitor in the city from Hull yesterday.

CAUSES FIRE ALARM

Alarmed by the appearance of smoke which he did not know the source. Otto Spieth called the fire department to his studio yesterday afternoon. Investigation showed that the stove pipe had come apart, letting the smoke into the room, instead of up the chimney. No damage was done, and the pipe has been securely wired in place.
